(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, Va., June 25.—Dr. James Monroe, chairman of the faculty of the University of Virginia, left here this evening for St. Louis, Mo., to attend the exercises in connection with State University Day—June 28th—as the official representative of the Virginia University.

The members of the faculties, undergraduates and alumni of the State universities will meet at Assembly Hall on the Exposition grounds at 1 o'clock Tuesday and form a procession to march to the Administration building, where a luncheon will be served. At this luncheon, Professor George F. MacLean, of the State University of Iowa, president of the Association of State Universities, will act as toastmaster.

The next speaker will be the Hon. John Sharpe Williams, majority leader in the House of Representatives, who will represent the University of Virginia at the exposition, and who will speak upon "Thomas Jefferson and His Educational Ideals."

Two other speakers of note from other sections of the country are expected.

DIED FROM HIS WOUND. Wilmer Steele Received Fatal Shot Near Home of Sweetheart.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ALEXANDRIA, Va., June 25.—Wilmer Steele, who was shot while resisting arrest by Constable John H. Connelley, Alexandria county, Tuesday, died this morning at the Alexandria Hospital as the result of his wound.

The father of the dead man, Mr. John Steele, who lives in Prince William county, was notified this morning of the death of his son.

Steele was employed as a section hand on the Loudoun branch of the Southern Railroad, and is said to have borne a very good character among his associates. A pathetic feature of the affair, was the fact that the victim was a young lady to whom he was engaged to be married.

Charles City Jottings.

MALVERN HILL, Va., June 25.—Corporal Hugh H. Harrison, of the 17th P. I., is home on furlough. He went with a regiment of six hundred cadets to the St. Louis exposition, where they spent a very pleasant ten days. He reports the fair as well worth seeing, and advises a full purse when leaving home. The wheat crop of Charles City is nearly harvested, the yield is light. The farmers are busy in the hay fields, and report the crop a very good one.

A Sabbath school was organized at Grace Chapel, Granville, the school opened with a large attendance; Mr. Wm. H. Hogan, superintendent; Mr. Wm. M. Woods, assistant, and Miss Mary R. Carter, organist, and will give instruction in the school. Rev. Mr. McCormick, feels very much gratified with the good work being done here. For many years they were unable to hold a school here owing to a scarcity of young people, so this goes to show Charles City is prospering.

Since the shad and herring have left the James river, fish are very scarce here, and the people are now wishing for a few of the over-abundance of a few weeks ago.

The cherry and peach crops are a failure this year, but apples will be plentiful. The blackberry and raspberry bushes are laden with fruit in this county.

Big Potato Shipments.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CAPE CHARLES, Va., June 25.—Shipments of Irish potatoes have been heavy this week, the price ranging from $2.25 to $2.50 per barrel. REV. MR. SMITH HAS DECLINED

Said That the Bishop Wants Rev. Mr. Dame for Archdeacon.

Information was received here last night from Winchester to the effect that the Rev. W. D. Smith, of Fredericksburg, has declined the office of archdeacon of the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia, to which he was recently elected. It was further stated that Bishop Gibson will now offer the position to the Rev. Nelson P. Dame, who recently resigned as rector of Christ Church, Winchester, to accept a call to Okefenokee, N. Y.

The absence of the bishop from the city has made it impossible for some time to get at any definite information concerning the new office. Mr. Smith was elected some time ago, and has been considering the matter since that time. He was expected to have come here yesterday. More recently it has been declared that he would probably not accept.

TIDEWATER ROAD.

Indications Point to Its Building, Notwithstanding Reports.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, Va., June 25.—The indications are that the report that the proposed Tidewater Railroad would not be built is without foundation and there are still those who expect to see the proposed line pushed on to a landing.

No less than seven different routes have been surveyed through Montgomery county. Representatives of the road are experiencing some trouble in securing extension of options for the right of way. Many of these are about to expire, and some of the land owners are refusing to extend the term.

It is admitted that considerable surveying in Virginia is being done west of Roanoke.

SAMUEL HARRIS DEAD.

Colored Man Who Was Prominent in Business.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILLIAMSBURG, Va., June 25.—Samuel Harris, a wealthy merchant and one of the best known colored men in Eastern Virginia, died at his home here yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, after an illness of several months.

Samuel Harris came here about thirty years ago a poor man, and by his energy and push succeeded in amassing a considerable fortune. He was a good citizen and was generally respected. He opened up West Williamsburg, which is one of the prettiest sections of this city. He was fifty-two years old.

"The order of Judge Pritchard, in part, is as follows: 'After a careful consideration of the facts, the court refuses to grant a writ of habeas corpus in this case. If the petitioner is entitled to any relief, his remedy should be by writ of error to the Supreme Court of the United States.'"

Cannon, when asked regarding his health, "I expect to take a sea voyage about July 9th, with my daughter, for the benefit of my health. We will not remain on the other side long, but will return perhaps on the same ship."

Central Trade Council.

The meeting of the Central Trades and Labor Council on Tuesday night will be brim full of interest. The semi-annual election of officers will be held and many other questions of interest will come before the council. The chief among these will be the report of the Labor Day Committee. This committee has under advisement the plans for the proper manner in the day should be celebrated, and their report will no doubt cause further debate on the subject.

The election of officers will no doubt be another feature of the meeting. President Ryall has served two terms, and as yet no opposition to his selection has been hinted. The same is true of the other officers of the council, and no committee of the body has been named to force the result. The present officers have served efficiently, and it is more than probable that their efficiency will be rewarded by a return to office for another term.

Committee Meetings.

Following are the committees scheduled to meet this week:

The Dixie Troubadours, which has been for several weeks touring the South, and which lately played a most successful engagement here, will return for another week of entertaining to-morrow night. All the clever people have been retained and the company will present a double bill. The opening number is a comedy skit entitled "A Trip to Paris," arranged by Max Hoffman. The piece is a mélange of vaudeville, comedy and music. During this skit specialties are given by Lillian LeRoy, the Yankee Comedy Four, Gertrude Hoffman and Rita Pierce, the Otto Brothers, and "The Right English Girls."

The second part of the programme consists of another comic sketch which is entitled "At Weinurst Inn," arranged by Otis Harlan. The dances are staged by Gertrude Hoffman and the music is under the direction of Harry Rappert. This skit gives ample opportunities for musical interpretations that are very pleasing. The comedy elements are also well handled, but the strong feature of the performance is the music. The songs are tuneful, the dances well executed and the whole well staged. Some of the musical gems introduced in the skit are "Queen of the Bungalow," "Dixie Land Daisies," and "Kolo Solo," a Japanese fantasy by John Gilroy. A number of very clever dances are also introduced, permitting the Eight English Girls and Misses Hoffman and Pierce to distinguish themselves. The riddle dance is a distinct novelty that will no doubt please the crowds this week.

As a whole the entertainment to be furnished is said to be superior to that given by the Troubadours when they were here a short time ago.

The company will appear every night, with matinee Wednesday and Saturday. Seats are on sale at Branch R. Allen's, Main and Ninth Streets.

Arrangements Have Been Completed.

Messrs. Rush and Weber and the management of the Madison Square Garden for the opening of the Madison Square Roof on July 2, with Paris by Night. Not only will the musical play itself be known by this name, but the ensemble of attractions on the roof of New York's most famous amusement resort will also be called Paris by Night. It is intended that this will be the most pretentious open air attraction of New York's midsummer. There will be several hundred persons employed about the roof itself in the way of French waitresses, booth tenders and other attaches, while in the musical play of Paris by Night there will be over a score of principals and some sixty persons in the chorus, most of whom will be pretty girls. The names of the principals have not as yet been announced, but it is promised that they are among the best known performers of the contemporary lyric stage.
